

CALL FOR PAPERS

PACLING2013

Conference of the Pacific Association for Computational Linguistics

September 2 – 5 2013

Mita Campus, Keio University, Tokyo, Japan (Tentative)

<http://pacling.nak.ics.keio.ac.jp>

SCOPE

PACLING 2013 will be a high-quality, workshop-style conference whose aim is to promote friendly scientific interaction relating to computational linguistics among Pacific Rim countries. The emphasis of the conference is on interdisciplinary scientific exchange demonstrating openness towards original high-quality research including one which might fall outside current dominant schools of thought, and on technological transfer within and across the Pacific region.

The conference represents a unique forum for scientific and technological exchange, being smaller than ACL and COLING, and more regional with extensive representation from the Pacific.

TOPICS

Substantial, original, and unpublished research is welcome on any topics in computational linguistics, including, but not limited to the following:

- Phonology and Phonetics
- Morphology and Morphological Analysis
- Syntax and Syntactic Analysis
- Semantics and Semantic Analysis
- Pragmatics and Discourse Analysis
- Spoken Language and Dialogue
- Language Resources
- Corpora and Corpus-based Language Processing
- Text and Message Understanding
- Text and Message Generation
- Information Extraction and Text Mining
- Information Retrieval and Question-Answering
- Text Summarization
- Language Learning
- Machine Translation
- Natural Language Interfaces
- Semantic Web and Semantic Computation

IMPORTANT DATES

Submission deadline: May 7, 2013 (extended)

Notification of acceptance: June 15, 2013

Camera-ready copy due: July 31, 2013

Conference dates: September 2-5, 2013

SUBMISSION OF PAPERS

Authors should prepare submissions in English of up to 6 pages including references. Guidelines and style sheets (based on the IEEE format) are available at the web site: < To be announced >

Papers that are being submitted to other conferences, whether verbatim or in essence must declare this fact. If a paper appears at another conference, it must be withdrawn from PACLING 2013. Papers that violate these requirements are subject to rejection without review.

All papers will be submitted electronically in PDF format, through a web-based submission system: < To be announced >

BEST PAPER AWARD AND BEST STUDENT PAPER AWARD

Awards for best paper and best student paper will be selected based on the reviews by the program committee.

PUBLICATION

All accepted papers will be published in the conference proceedings in CD-ROM and made available on the website (after a given date).
